Re: Travel Sentry, Inc. v. Tropp, Case No. 06-cv-6415 (EVN) (“Travel Sentry”)
Tropp v. Conair Corp. et al., Case No. 08-cv-4446 (EVN) (“Conair”)

Dear Judge Mann:

We are counsel to defendant David A. Tropp (“Tropp”) in the Travel Sentry case. We write on behalf of Mr. Tropp in response to the Court's January 8, 2013 Order (Mr. Tropp is represented by separate counsel in the Conair case). The parties in both cases have conferred and agree that they would like to try to resolve these cases by participating in court-annexed mediation prior to engaging in further motion practice.

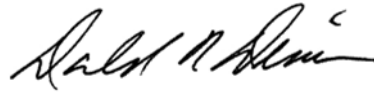

We understand, through consultations with Travel Sentry’s counsel, that they are suggesting that mediation occur between counsel, in both cases, for Mr. Tropp and counsel for Travel Sentry for efficiency and logistical purposes, with counsel for the other parties in the Conair case available by phone should they need to be consulted. Counsel for Mr. Tropp agrees with this approach, at least at this preliminary stage.

We would propose that the mediation be scheduled for a date in February or March, 2013. Mr. Tropp’s counsel (including the undersigned) is not available from March 8th through March 15th, nor March 25th through April 5th, inclusive.
